

Arun Jaitley National Institute of Financial Management
Sector 48, Pali Road, Faridabad -121001, Haryana, (India)
DOE-AJNIFM: Procurement Research Centre

A special issue on public procurement of NIFM journal of Public Financial Management is being brought out in November 2023. Researchers/ Practitioner who wish to publish their research from the domain of public procurement and supply chain may kindly submit their paper by 30th October 2023 to doe.prc@nifm.ac.in or editor@nifm.ac.in .

The submissions should fall within the following broad areas of public procurement:

- Green and sustainable public procurement
- E-procurement in public sector
- Procurement induced innovation
- The modern, data- driven procurement process
- Integrated automation and predictive analytics in Procurement
- Supplier prioritization and Proactive risk management in Procurement
- Multi- sourcing of suppliers, nearshoring in procurement
- Supplier contract negotiation in procurement
- Bidding Analytics; Invoice / regulatory analytics
- Reducing transaction cost and shortening procurement cycle times
- Eliminating complexity in procurement processes that impede performance and introduce risk through increased automation
- Intuitive e-procurement platforms; E-procurement applying semantic technologies
- Automation of human resource-intensive tasks
- Big data utilization, implementation of digital procurement activities
- Enterprise resource planning with predictive analytics
- Procurement-led innovation and stakeholder value improvement
- Procurement technology to cluster data from ERP, procure-to-pay systems, contract management systems
- Data analytics and cognitive analytics in Procurement process

As an illustration, the papers published in the October 2022 special issue on public procurement are given below:

1. The Rationale for Ethics in Public Procurement: A Transaction Costs Perspective- Vivek Suneja
2. High Value Public Procurement: A Case Study of India- Vikas Rohilla
3. Payment Innovation for successful Public Private Partnership (PPP) - B.K. Sahay
4. Potential of Public Procurement in India to Induce Innovation- Sidheshwar Tiwari
5. Public Procurement in India during the Pandemic- Yugank Goyal
6. A Systematic Approach to Environmentally Sustainable Public Procurement in Road Construction - Sunil Kumar Chaudhary

For paper submission guidelines please visit below link:

<https://www.ajpfm.ac.in/guidelines-for-authors>